INNER BLACK

Some things brighten up from the inside.

Decided to believe in beauty
that shows up from the inside.

“Looking good tonight as usual”

The woman said to me at my usual bar.

She says the same lines every time we meet. A cliché.

I usually just smile back, but I wanted to tease her a little, so I asked,

“How am I looking good? I’m not good looking”

Yeah, I can never have confidence in my appearance.

I was never a hit with women.

“That’s because many people don’t know the beauty that shows up from the inside.

Your face is how you live. People living lame lives will have lame faces, and people living well will have good faces.

Even better than some models out there.”

“Is that so?” I said, and she handed me a glass.

A coal-black glass.

“See? This glass brings out the clarity by making the inner color black.

It’s the same for people, too. Here, it’s a present”

She left, leaving those words behind.

Leaving the first present.
